1. Reporting

- 1.1. Community Input. Michelle Crispell said roads are getting bad but the senior community breakfast went well this morning.
- 1.2. Administrators Report: We have our annual financial report in hand. This morning we had the senior community breakfast with a presentation on fraud alert. He also spoke to the 5th grade class about fraud issues. We have a bus that has a check engine light on and needs work. Positive feedback on the choir/band concert held last week. The Fill-A-Belly program needs to be relocated back to the school due to the Prentice Baptist church needing the space back. More was discussed.
- 1.3. Principals Report: The concert went well, sound was easier to hear. In Jan some middle school kids get to go to a leadership day at Lambeau Field in Green Bay. Rick Cardy is working with kids during RTI time. The high school leadership group wants to start working with the middle school kids. The Buccaneer Buddies program is starting back up. Rick Cardy helped create a teacher observation form and Kati did a couple of them with him. Making plans for 2nd semester changes that need to be made
